DETAILED ACTION

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. It unknown how the levers move in a linear manner or how the coupling works to fixture and unfixture the levers relatively.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 4-6, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Van Rossem et al. (US Pat. 4,094,209).

Van Rossem et al. (US Pat. 4,094,209) a control device comprising a first linearly movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 20; a second linearly movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 20 (fig. 3) disposed in a parallel relationship with the first lever; a coupling from releasably interconnecting the first and second levers, in order to selectively enable independent and simultaneous linear movement of the first and second lever;

at least one switch disposed on at least one of the first and second levers.

Claims 4-6, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Japanese Pat. 5-75923.

Japanese Pat. 5-75923 a control device comprising a first linearly movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 7; a second linearly movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 8 disposed in a parallel relationship with the first lever; a coupling (fig. 2) from releasably interconnecting the first 7 and second 8 levers, in order to selectively enable independent and simultaneous linear movement of the first 7 and second 8 lever; at least one switch disposed on at least one of the first and second levers.

FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. Group 3600's facsimile number is (571) 273-8300. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MEP. 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitting by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MEP. 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. (703) 872-9306) on _____

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate:

(Signature)

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MEP. 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.
